Freelancer.com Announces Finalists for “Expose Our Logo To Win US$10,000” Competition

SYDNEY, March 3rd 2010: Freelancer.com, the world’s #1 micro-outsourcing marketplace today announced the top finalists for the “Expose Our Logo for $10,000” Competition.

Over 2,000 entrants competed in the global competition to promote Freelancer.com's new logo. The hummingbird design represents the freedom, creativity and variety provided by the career of a Freelancer.

“We have been completely overwhelmed by the response and high quality of entries from all points of the globe”, said Matt Barrie, Chief Executive of Freelancer.com, “Watching video entries from far afield as Lithuania, Argentina, India, Mexico, USA and the UK proves how global our marketplace and diverse our Freelancer community really is.”

"We've been amazed at some of the entries; from a giant version of the logo created in a sugar cane field in the Philippines to being carved in the snow in Poland!", he said.

The finalists in the competition are:

Alex Myszkowski (USA)
Villamor Alejo (Philippines)

About Freelancer

Freelancer.com is a global marketplace for online and freelance jobs where businesses connect with independent service providers and freelancers to outsource their work. Freelancer.com connects over 1.4 million employers and freelancers globally from over 234 countries & regions. Through our website, employers can hire freelancers to do work in areas such as software, writing, data entry and design right through to engineering and the sciences, sales and marketing, and accounting & legal services. Freelancer is the leader in the micro-outsourcing market, with the average job size being under US$200. This is extremely cost effective for small businesses, which often need a wide variety of jobs to be done, but cannot justify the expense of hiring full time.
