Top Jobs Marketplace Freelancer.com Breaks the Record with Nine Stevies in 2015 International Business Awards

SYDNEY, August 17, 2015: From garnering a landslide five Stevies last year, top online freelancing and crowdsourcing platform Freelancer.com once again sweeps this year's prestigious International Business Awards with a record-breaking nine Stevies. That makes the total number of Stevies won by the company in the last three years an impressive 20 awards.

The company won two Gold Stevies in the Company of the Year - Internet/New Media and Communications Team of the Year categories, and four Silver Stevies in the following categories: Communications or PR Campaign of the Year - Public Affairs, Executive of the Year - Business Services, Company of the Year - Business or Professional Services, Website of the Year - Business Services.

Freelancer.com was also recognized with three Bronze Stevies, under the Executive of the Year - Internet/New Media, Communications, Investor Relations or PR Executive of the Year, and App of the Year - Business Services categories.

The voting period for the People's Choice Awards for Favorite Companies is currently ongoing where Freelancer.com was nominated for Business/Professional Services and Internet/New Media categories.

"We really appreciate this momentous event for us and for the millions of professionals, which we empower through Freelancer.com,” says Matt Barrie, Chief Executive of Freelancer.com. “With the trust that over 16 million freelancers and employers have given us, as well as the recognition by award-giving bodies such as the International Business Awards, we are greatly driven towards creating even more opportunities for people everywhere around the globe.”

The International Business Awards is the world’s premier business awards program. All individuals and organizations worldwide – public and private, for-profit and non-profit, large and small - are eligible to submit nominations. The 2015 IBAs received entries from more than 60 nations and territories, with more than 3,700 nominations from organizations of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted this year.

Stevie Award winners were determined by the average scores of more than 200 executives worldwide who participated in the judging process from May through early August.

“The IBAs grow in stature and renown every year, and with that, the number and quality of entries increases,” said Michael Gallagher, president and founder of the Stevie Awards. “This year’s judges were treated to more than 3,700 stories of success and achievement around the world. We thank the judges for their time and feedback, and we congratulate the Gold, Silver and Bronze Stevie winners whom we’ll celebrate in Toronto in October.”

Details about The International Business Awards and the lists of Stevie Award winners are available at www.StevieAwards.com/IBA. Winners are to be celebrated at Gala Banquet on 23 October in Toronto, Canada.
